

TEEN

READ WEEK

October 16-22, 2011

Book Poster

Got a favorite book or graphic novel you think others should read? Promote it by creating a poster!

Stop on in. All materials provided. Your work will be on display here in the library!

Brownies and Booktalks

Our local Teen Services librarian will be here to introduce you to some current young adult novels.

Stop on in to listen, relax, enjoy a treat, and to find your next SSR book!

Redesign a Book Jacket

Ever read a book and afterwards decided that its cover could use some improvement?

Here is your chance to put your artistic abilities to great use and redesign a book jacket.

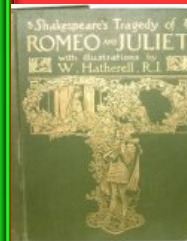

Your artwork could be used to replace currently worn out or outdated library book jackets.

Stop on in. All materials provided.

Book Poster/Jacket Part II

A masterpiece takes time. Come finish up either your book jacket or book poster.

Book cover before ☹

Book cover after ☺

Lounging in the Library

You are invited to chill out in the library. We will have treats, soft music, and a microphone stand welcoming students to read a poem or short story.
