TEACHER RECOGNITION AWARD: Students, here is your chance to reward excellence in teaching: The William and Mildred Jackson Teacher Recognition Award annually honors a teacher (including deans and guidance counselors) who has exhibited special skills in the art and science of teaching, as a cocurricular moderator, or as a coach. The award will consist of a special award symbolizing excellence and a check for $5,000.

Qualities the committee will look for are

- Teachers who go above and beyond their normal duties
- Teachers who serve as a role model for their peers and LTHS students
- Teachers who significantly affect in a very positive way the life of one or more students whether inside or outside the classroom

Nominations can come from three sources:

- Self-nomination
- Colleague nomination
- Student nomination

Make a difference! The deadline for submission of nominations is Friday, March 2, 2012. Get a nomination form from the Principal's Office at Central Campus or East Campus or via the LTHS website, www.lths.org. Say thank you to someone who has affected your life.

STUDENTS: If you are interested in studying a particular language and its culture, please plan on attending an informative meeting on Thursday, February 9th at 3:00 p.m. in the auditorium. A representative from Concordia College's Language Villages will be present. Concordia Language Villages is the premiere language and cultural immersion program in the United States. For 50 years, Concordia Language Villages in the beautiful North Woods of Minnesota has been boldly and optimistically pursuing a vision of peace and understanding by introducing learners to the languages and cultures of our world. Again, the meeting will be on Thursday, February 9th at 3:00 p.m. in the auditorium. If you have any other further questions, please see Mrs. Pratt in Room 6 at East.

FACULTY

LTHS FOUNDATION/PUBLIC RELATIONS REMINDERS: Faculty and staff members, please remember to forward any information for news releases to the Public Relations/Development Office at least three weeks prior to the event date, if possible. This gives us optimal time to prepare the news release and forward it to the local media with consideration of their deadline times and dates. LTHS Foundation Minigrant Request forms (general and conference) and Payroll Deduction Pledge forms are available on the LTHS website via the Faculty/Faculty Forms link or via the LTHS Foundation link.

- Minigrants may be submitted at any time—year-round. Minigrant requests are presented for consideration at the Foundation's regularly scheduled monthly meetings which are held on the first Tuesday of each month with the exception of July. When submitting a completed Minigrant Request form for consideration, please allow at least seven business days prior to the next meeting so as to allow for ample time for distribution to our Minigrant Consideration Committee.
- Payroll Deduction Pledge forms also are available via the Faculty/Faculty Forms link and may be submitted and/or contributions amended at any time throughout the year.

Thank you for your cooperation and support of our programs. Feel free to call extension 8121 with any questions.
