Seniors, Students Celebrate Cinco de Mayo in Style

Students from Lockport Township High School’s Spanish Honor Society and the Physical Education Department recently participated in a “Cinco de Mayo” celebration held at Lago Vista, a retirement community in Lockport.

About 75 residents from the 55-and-over community celebrated with the students of LTHS.

Students from the Physical Education Department prepared folk dances and wore traditional costumes to provide an authentic cultural experience. Other student volunteers prepared a variety of games including Pass the Sombrero, Mexican Trivia, and a piñata to entertain and interact with the guests.

The student volunteers included Malena Avila, Claudia Padilla, Vivian Padilla, Marlin Vasquez, and Abeline Rodriguez. David Handzik, Austin Hunter, Claudia Castaneda, Rayan, Kendziora, Alex Fisch, Alyssa Maty, Dylan Hudgens, Jaclyn Novak, and Thomas Hatzopoulos.

The event was coordinated by Lago Vista resident Cheryl Drew.
