Finger Named High School Volleyball Academic All-American

Lexi Finger, a senior at Lockport Township High School, recently earned a spot on the 2009 PrepVolleyball.com High School Volleyball Academic All-Americans Team. Senior players were chosen based on their skills on the volleyball court and the classroom.

Finger, a two-year All Conference and All Area performer, was the team captain for the Porters in 2009. Academically, her 4.68 GPA on a 4.0 scale ranks Finger 11th in her class out of 965 students, placing her in the top 1.1 percent.

A member of the National Honor and Spanish Honor societies and an Illinois State Scholar, Finger scored an astounding 34 out of 36 on the ACT test. She will play next year for Colgate University.
