

The suspense you will experience is all credit to the puzzling minds of the student directors. If you are up for something new, you will enjoy “The Lost Vase of Priam,” “Devils and Deviants,” and “Elementary, My Dear Witness”—all written by the LTHS students.

For those preferring an old classic, enjoy “The Twilight Zone” one-acts: “Monsters Are Due on Maple St.” and “Nightmare at 2,000 Feet.” Along with “Clue,” Whodunit? will have you feeling like a kid again.

Take a break from detective work and share a laugh with the Shower Cap Kids. Can you piece together these ageless mysteries? There is only one way to find out. Take a seat in the Central Campus auditorium on November 20 and 21 and prepare your mind for exciting one-acts that will keep you guessing until the end.
